

EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONAL SERVICES

Furlough Support Information

All clients housed at any of the residential facilities operated by Eighth Judicial District must follow established rules and regulations, a copy of our Residential Facility rules are included in this packet. Infractions of these rules/regulations will result in major violation reports and could potentially lead to the revocation of client's probation/parole/work release with the possibility of placement in prison. By signing the Furlough Questionnaire and Agreement, it is important for you to be aware of the rules and regulations and to realize that if you in any way aid the client in the breaking of these rules, you will not be helping them. You will be a major part of the reason they will not be successful in this program and therefore at high risk for incarceration.

Our policy requires that the furlough residence must have a working (landline) telephone. You will be required to provide a copy of a recent phone bill to staff to verify that a landline phone is in operation. If you do not have a land line the Client will be required to wear a GPS unit. There can be no alcohol, drugs or weapons of any kind in the residence. The District's High Risk Unit Officers will be coming to your residence unannounced and must be allowed to meet with the client and walk through the residence. An HRU 'Notice to All Individuals Under Supervision' document is also included in this packet.

The Eighth Judicial District's Residential Facility Staff want all clients to successfully complete and receive maximum benefits from the program at our facilities. The furlough is a very important part of the program and we want to thank you for helping your friend and/or relative have the opportunity to furlough. We further want to thank you for agreeing to the conditions, which make it possible for this client to furlough to your home. The staff are willing to work with you if there are any problems concerning furlough time and we will appreciate and expect your help if needed.

If you understand and agree to the above, you need to complete and sign the Furlough Questionnaire and Agreement and personally deliver or have the form mailed to the client's assigned Case Manager at the location listed below. If the form is returned incomplete, it will be rejected. Clients are not allowed to submit these forms and they must be either delivered in person or mailed directly to the assigned Case Manager. The assigned Case Manager will then investigate your application, which will include speaking to you personally on the phone, at which time you will have an opportunity to ask questions. If approved, your name and residence will be added to the client's approved destinations.
